

Delta Airlines Name Change Policy - Fees, Process, and Requirements

Delta Airlines recognizes that booking errors happen and provides options for correcting names on reservations. ☎+1-844-994-3876 The name change policy focuses on fixing mistakes rather than transferring tickets between different passengers. Common corrections include misspelled names, transposed first and last names, missing middle names, or incorrect name formats that don't match government-issued identification.

Distinguishing between minor corrections and complete name changes is important under Delta's policy. ☎+1-844-994-3876 Simple spelling errors like "Jon" instead of "John" or "Smyth" instead of "Smith" are considered minor corrections and are typically processed quickly with minimal fees. Complete name changes that alter passenger identity are not permitted as tickets are non-transferable. ☎+1-844-994-3876

Legal name changes require specific documentation for Delta to process updates.

☎+1-844-994-3876 Passengers who have changed their legal names due to marriage, divorce, or court order must provide supporting documents such as marriage certificates, divorce decrees, or legal court orders. The new name must match the passenger's current government-issued photo identification to comply with TSA regulations. ☎+1-844-994-3876

Fees for name corrections depend on multiple factors including fare class and route.

☎+1-844-994-3876 Some simple spelling corrections may be processed without charge, especially if caught early after booking. More complex changes or corrections made closer to departure may incur service fees or require ticket reissuance with fare differences. Basic Economy tickets generally have stricter policies than flexible fare classes.

The process for requesting name corrections varies by situation and urgency.

☎+1-844-994-3876 For minor corrections, passengers can contact Delta customer service by phone or visit airport ticket counters. Time-sensitive situations benefit from direct phone contact, while non-urgent corrections can be handled through customer service chat. Having the confirmation number, current identification, and supporting legal documents ready expedites the process. ☎+1-844-994-3876
