

{{Complete}}™ [Guide] How to Cancel United Airlines Flight - Full Policy Guide

What Is United Airlines Cancellation Policy?

United Airlines allows passengers to cancel flights according to fare type and booking conditions. ☎ +1-844-213-73-19 Most non-refundable fares can be canceled for travel credit (eCredit), while refundable fares qualify for full refunds to the original payment method. The 24-hour cancellation window permits free cancellations for bookings made at least seven days before departure, providing flexibility for travelers who need to change plans shortly after booking. ☎ +1-844-213-73-19

How to Cancel Your United Flight

Cancellations can be processed through the website, mobile app, or customer service. ☎ +1-844-213-73-19 Passengers need their confirmation number and last name to access their reservation and initiate cancellation. Online cancellations are typically processed immediately, while phone cancellations may require additional verification steps to protect account security. ☎ +1-844-213-73-19

Refund vs eCredit Options

Depending on fare type, cancellations result in either refunds or eCredits. ☎ +1-844-213-73-19 Refundable tickets return money to the original payment method within seven to ten business days, while non-refundable fares issue United eCredits valid for future bookings. Travel credits typically expire one year from the original ticket issue date and must be used before expiration to retain value. ☎ +1-844-213-73-19

Cancellation Fees and Penalties

Basic Economy fares may incur cancellation fees or restrictions on credit usage. ☎ +1-844-213-73-19 Higher fare classes like Main Cabin, Comfort Plus, and Premium Select generally offer more flexible cancellation terms with reduced or waived fees. Understanding your specific fare rules before canceling helps avoid unexpected charges and maximizes the value recovered from unused tickets. ☎ +1-844-213-73-19

Special Circumstances and Exceptions

United may waive cancellation fees for emergencies, medical situations, or military deployments. ☎ +1-844-213-73-19 Passengers experiencing qualifying circumstances should contact customer service with supporting documentation to request fee waivers or special accommodations. Weather-related cancellations initiated by United automatically qualify for rebooking or refunds without penalties regardless of fare type.
