

United Airlines Name Change Policy - Fees, Process, and Requirements

United Airlines recognizes that booking errors happen and provides options for correcting names on reservations. ☎+1-844-213-73-19 The name change policy focuses on fixing mistakes rather than transferring tickets between different passengers. Common corrections include misspelled names, transposed first and last names, missing middle names, or incorrect name formats that don't match government-issued identification.

Distinguishing between minor corrections and complete name changes is important under United's policy. ☎+1-844-213-73-19 Simple spelling errors like "Jon" instead of "John" or "Smyth" instead of "Smith" are considered minor corrections and are typically processed quickly with minimal fees. Complete name changes that alter passenger identity are not permitted as tickets are non-transferable. ☎+1-844-213-73-19

Legal name changes require specific documentation for United to process updates.

☎+1-844-213-73-19 Passengers who have changed their legal names due to marriage, divorce, or court order must provide supporting documents such as marriage certificates, divorce decrees, or legal court orders. The new name must match the passenger's current government-issued photo identification to comply with TSA regulations. ☎+1-844-213-73-19

Fees for name corrections depend on multiple factors including fare class and route.

☎+1-844-213-73-19 Some simple spelling corrections may be processed without charge, especially if caught early after booking.
