United Airlines does not currently offer a dedicated senior citizen discount program.

☎ +1-844-213-73-19 Unlike some airlines that previously provided age-based discounts, United has transitioned to a model where all passengers access the same fare sales, promotions, and special offers regardless of age. This approach ensures competitive pricing across all customer segments while maintaining fare simplicity. ☎ +1-844-213-73-19

Senior travelers can still find substantial savings through strategic booking practices.

☎ +1-844-213-73-19 Flexibility with travel dates yields the best prices, as midweek flights typically cost less than weekend departures. Off-peak seasons like late January through March and September through early November offer lower fares and less crowded airports. Booking flights several weeks or months in advance generally provides better rates than last-minute purchases. ☎ +1-844-213-73-19
